Winner—Br. f, 4, by Ben Ali—Ezra.
Start good. Won easily; second driving. Easel is a mere sprinter, likes the mud and was lucky. Rufalba will do better over a distance, and was badly ridden. Hazel D is ready. From a bad start she closed ground throughout. Scorch is only worth considering on a muddy track. Alvero had speed. He is a mere sprinter and was short. Gratify had bad luck. He was interfered with at the start and badly ridden. He pulled up lame. Martin likes a muddy track. So does Harry O. He was short.
Scratched—Norah N, 106, Governor Budd, 111.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Carlo—Countess of Langdon.
Start good. Won easily. The Count was much the best. He is an extremely game horse. He may be tabbed as favoring a distance. He bore in under the drive that vanquished Marmion Fonsavannah was badly ridden and cut off near finish and at head of stretch. Marmion was the hinderer in the latter case. He bore in with the Count. Marmion will improve. Yule ran a good race. He was badly ridden and interfered with at the start and closed on his horses regularly when he got going. Moringa was short, yet was making up ground at the finish. Highland Ball has some class in mud; not on dry going. Throw out this race. Henry C was short and favors a distance. Watch him.
Scratched—Bonnie Lone, 103; Suscol, 103; Duke of York II, 106.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Brutus—Beauty.
Start good. Won ridden out. The Roman isn't at his best yet. He, however, outclassed his field. He favors hard going. All the progeny of Brutus does. He will do better from now. Trance has class, courage and speed. She was closing like a lioness at the end, is ready and was badly managed and placed. As the horses performed to-day she was the best. Argentina was interfered with on the first turn, favors a distance of ground and must have smooth, hard footing to be classed at her best. McLight is rheumatic. He needs hot weather and strong handling. He was badly ridden to-day.

IMP'S SPARKLING RACE.

Lakeside's going had a dangerous aspect yesterday and scratches were numerous. The fourth race was almost ruined. Out of it, though, came a sensational performance. Imp running seven furlongs over the lumpy course in 1:26. The flashy black filly was at her best. She stepped the quarter in 24 seconds, the half in 48 and the five furlongs in 1:01. This sparkling speed made Laureate leg weary and at the end he swerved all over the track. Imp won pulled up.

Walter Gum lost his good El Rio Rey—Atelia mare Mandolina after she won the last race. She was entered for $200, run up to $600 by C. T. Henshall and bought by him. The mare was a 4 to 5 chance, and won off by herself.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Midlo' hian—Starlight.
Start good. Won ridden out. Lode Star was best, but is a coward and favors mellow going. Mascota will not next time. She needed this race. Mulberry hates weight, but likes distance. He wasn't ready, yet closed ground throughout. Watch El Venado. He was short. So tab Coupon. Coupon was short and can be tabbed as a wonder in the mud. Zamloch was lame. Scratched—Jay Wheeler, 106; Posey, 109.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Bersan—Sample.
Off first break. Start good. Won hand ridden. The next five were driving to the limit. Battledore was the best and ran a real good race. Smith was lucky in getting the good going, too. Lizzetta weakened in the closing drive. She pulled up lame. Helen Wren seems to be of no present account. She got away well and had no excuses. Virgie Dixon showed a lot of speed. The boy rode a bad race on her. Verdi also had speed but quit badly.

Winner—Ch. f, by Deceiver—Hattie Vaughan.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third driving hard, too. Fair Deceiver was lucky and well ridden. Clay got her away well and nursed her nicely to the eighth pole. He finished strong when the pinch came. Brightie S was carelessly ridden. Conley was overconfident and waited too long before he made his run. The filly was undoubtedly the best and will turn the tables next time. Farm Life, outrun the first part of it, finished strong on her own courage. Narvaez rode her weakly at the end. Jay Bird, heavily played, had little or no speed. Empress Josephine made up a lot of ground. Hazeldean did not bleed, but ran disappearingly.

Scratched—Whirmantiline, 104; Loving Cup, 115; Utah, 105; Flo Honeydew, 107; Armorer, 105; Mary Will, 97; Lillian Russell, 100; Miss Kinbello, 100; Gnome, 102; Miss Gillman, 97; Firelight, 97.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth driving. Mandolina is good and was in a soft spot. She was sent to the post without blinkers and acted much better than usual. Paul Pry ran a fair race and Weenatchie a good one. The latter was interfered with on the first turn and sulked for over a half mile. La Moore made a strong bid in the stretch. Arrezzo will not do at all. Henry Ormsby was carded to go, but did not appear in the paddock. All bets were declared off and a new book was made.
